JOHN CONRAD (JOHANNES) HORN #4

He was born January 10th, 1754, in Williams Township, Northampton Co., Pa., second son of John Peter and Gertrude Horn.

He lived most of his adult life in Salisbury Township, now Allentown, Pa., and made his living as a hatter. He married Magdalena Troxell on the 26th of October, 1775, in Northampton Town, now Allentown, Pa., and they had at least eight and possibly nine children.

He was commissioned on May 21st, 1777 as 1st Lieutenant 3rd Company (Captain Groff), 1st Battalion, Northampton County Militia. The company consisted of about 80 men. The battalion numbered about 600 men. They assembled at Northampton and remained there about two weeks. They then marched to Chester, Pa., encamped near Wilmington, and fought in the Battle of Brandywine, near Chadd's Ford, in September 1777. They also saw service in the Battle of Germantown. The battalion returned to Northampton.

On May 14th, 1781, he was enrolled as a Lieutenant, 3rd Company (Captain George Schriver) 4th Battalion, Northampton County Militia.

Finally, he was enrolled in Captain Rinker's Company, 7th Battalion, Northampton County Militia on April 28th, 1785.

On September 1st, 1795, John sold property at 147 Margaret St. and Gordon St., Northampton Town, now Allentown, to William Walb, originally bought from Nicholas Ott on April 1st, 1792.

John died November 27th, 1800, and was buried in Grave #169, 10th St. Cemetery, Allentown, Pa. He left no will, and his estate consisted of real property (land, a log house, outwellings and a barn), personal property (three horses, two cows, four geese, sleds, harnesses, wagons, trade tools and household items), cash and unpaid debts owed to him. The total inventory amounted to almost 1,000 pounds English money. The estate was divided among his widow and his children according to Pennsylvania law. Refer to the section entitled "Documents" for a detailed inventory of both his estate and that of his wife.

This biography was prepared from various sources, among them "History of Lehigh Co., Penna" by Chas R. Roberts.

Nathan Laudenschlaeger

This biography is taken from "History of Lehigh Co., Penna" by Charles R. Roberts

Nathan Laudenslager was born July 5, 1814, in Macungie Township. After he was fifteen he removed to Bethlehem and learned the tinsmith trade, which he continued in Allentown until 1838, when he sold his interest and purchased a half-interest in the Allentown Gas-Light Company. Under his management the works were enlarged and the property greatly improved. In 1871 the interests he purchased were sold for ten times its original cost, and Mr. Laudenslager retired from active business, though still identified with the Catasaqua National Bank. He married in 1834 Rebecca Horn, and had children: George H.; William A. & Charles L.; Mary, Eliza, married to George Seislove; and Sally, married to C. H. Edwards.

Mr. Laudenslager is in politics a Democrat, but has aspired to no office other than that of water commissioner, which he held for four successive years. He is a member of the German Reformed Church, as was also his wife, whose death occurred June 3, 1883. He is an active Odd-Fellow, member of Allen Lodge, No. 71, of I.O.O.F., and of Union Encampment, No. 12, of which he has been for thirty-three years treasurer.

CHARLES T. HORN, M. D., a well known physician and surgeon of Lehighton, has the honor of being a native of Carbon County. He was born January 21, 1848, and is a son of Thomas and Anna M. Horn. His father, who is a carpenter by trade, followed that occupation in early life, but later took up the occupation of farming, which he follows in Mahoning Valley. His wife was called to her final rest in 1863. They were the parents of fourteen children, twelve of whom reached mature years.

The Doctor, who is fourth in order of birth, passed the days of his boyhood amidst play and work, and in attendance at the district schools, where he laid the foundation of a good practical education. He afterward attended the Carbon Academy of Lehighton, and for a time followed the profession of teaching in order to gain a livelihood and advancement in intellectual attainment; but not wishing to make this his life work, he determined to enter the medical profession, and accordingly became a student in the office of Dr. N. B. Reber, of Lehighton. After reading under the instruction of that gentleman for a time, he entered the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Baltimore, Md., and was graduated therefrom in March, 1878, carrying off the honors of the class. He spent one summer in the City Hospital, in order that a practical knowledge might be added to his theoretical information.

In the spring of 1878 Dr. Horn came to Lehighton, where he has since engaged in general practice, meeting with flattering success in his undertakings and winning the recognition of the public, as is evinced by his liberal patronage. He is a member of the Carbon County Medical Society, Lehigh Valley Medical Association, and the State Medical Society of Pennsylvania.

In 1878 Dr. Horn was united in marriage with (Marriage date was Dec. 26, 1872, per Easton Argus)

Miss Adaline Montz, daughter of Joseph Montz, of Lehighton. They have a family of three children: Mattie M., Bert T. and Anna M.

Dr. Horn has been a member of the School Board for eight years, and does all in his power to advance the cause of education. He is noted as an ardent lover and promoter of the art of music. For six years he was a member of the Board of Pension Examining Surgeons for Carbon County. He is now a member of the Board of Health, and has also at various times held other important local offices. Socially he is identified with the Knights of the Golden Eagle.

The Doctor comes of a well known and prominent family, whose representatives were numbered among the pioneers of this locality. His great-grandfather, George Heinrich Horn, came from Zweibrucken, Germany, and settled in Lehigh County in 1780. His grandfather, John Horn, usually called "Squire," was born in Whitehall, Lehigh County. He moved to Carbon County about 1805, becoming one of its foremost citizens.

Of our subject's brothers, Dr. J. A. Horn, of Mauch Chunk, Pa., is a graduate of St. Edward Collegiate Institute. He also took a course of study in the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Baltimore, Md., and in the medical department of the University of Pennsylvania. Rev. A. P. Horn, pastor of the Reformed Church at Hellertown, Pa., is a graduate of Franklin and Marshall College. Edgar A. Horn is a graduate of the Philadelphia College of Pharmacy. George B. M. Horn is a registered pharmacist of Chicago.

THE PRESENT PASTOR

REV. ALFRED P. HORN

Rev. Alfred P. Horn, son of Thomas Horn and his wife Anna Maria (Horn), was born near Lehighon, Pa., December 26, 1852, baptised by Rev. E. A. Bauer, January 25, 1853, and confirmed at Weissport, Pa., by Rev. A. W. Bartholomew, April 10, 1870.

His early years were spent on his father's farm and in the pursuit of such an education as the country school afforded. At the age of seventeen he began teaching school and after some years spent in teaching and going to school, Palatinate College conferred upon him a diploma in music and gave him a certificate which admitted him, September, 1878, to the Junior class of Franklin and Marshall College, from which he graduated with honor in 1880, and from the Theological Seminary at Lancaster, Pa., May 10, 1883.

Licensed by Lehigh Classis, May 17, 1883, he began preaching at Lower Stone Church, North Carolina, June 17. After supplying several vacant pulpits in that State for a short time, he accepted a call to Grace charge, Catawba County, N. C. He was ordained by Potomac Synod at Newton, October 20, and entered upon his pastorate the twenty-first.

After a very pleasant year spent in the Old North State he resigned and came north July 1, 1884.

He next served a congregation at Summit Hill, Pa., from November 30, 1884, to November 30, 1891, and organized a congregation at Lansford, Pa., February 27, 1892.

He entered upon his labors as pastor of the Springfield charge, of which Apple's Church is a part, May 1, 1892.

His wife was Miss Katie F. Carpenter, of Barnesville, Pa., to whom he was married January 8, 1884. The ten years so far passed in this field of labor have had their joys and their sorrows, their successes and their failures. May the Lord over-rule all to his glory and the good of his people.

Death of Rev. A. P. Horn

Rev. Albert P. Horn, of Hellertown, Pa., died suddenly at the residence of his brother, Dr. C. T. Horn Tuesday evening, where he was confined with typhoid fever since the funeral of his uncle the late Samuel Graver. Ho was recovering from the fever but a sudden attack of heart disease was too much for his weakened condition and death resulted. 'Deceased was born in Mahoning Valley and was aged 54 years. Besides his wife he is survived by two daughters and the following brothers and sisters: Dr. O. T., of town; Dr. J. A., of Mauch Chunk; Dr. Edward, of Philadelphia; Thomas, of Mahoning; George, of Chicago; .Frank, of Bloomdale, Ohio; John, of Sioux City, Iowa; Mrs. Abbie Peters, Allentown, and Mrs. John Gomerv, of town. The funeral will be held from Zion's Reformed Church at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, Rev. A. S. Webber, of Baltimore, officiating, assisted by Rev. N. Z. Snyder, of South Bethlehem, and Rev. D. A. Winter, of town. The Masonic Lodge of Tamaqna, will have charge of the burial service. A large delegation of ministers of the Reformed- classis are expected. Before coming to Hellertown. Rev. Horn had charge of congregations in North Carolina and at Summit Hill.
